STAFF BIO

MA in Mathematics from UCSD (1991)

Teaching Math since 1992

Teaching here since 2007

I am a proud father of two daughters (ages 13 and 15) and dedicated teacher of my students. I also teach courses at San Diego City College and Miramar College; consequently, much of the work I do here is geared toward preparing students for college.

My teaching... I see it as my duty to give opportunities to students which will expand their mental flexibility, and extend their thinking beyond just procedures and memorization.
