STAFF BIO

Hi! My name is Gonzalo Ruiz. I have lived in San Diego for the last twenty-five years. Before coming to enjoy this great city, I lived in Santa Cruz, California, for another ten years. I completed my general education at Hartnell College in Salinas California and subsequently I moved to San Diego to attend SDSU.

I earned my bachelor's degree in Spanish and my teaching credential at San Diego State University. Since I received my teaching credential, I have been teaching Spanish to college and High school students.

I love to teach and, I enjoy living in San Diego. The multiculturalism in all its manifestations and the weather here are unique. I love soccer and tennis. In my free time I like to practice tennis. I don't play soccer anymore but, I have enjoyed coaching freshman girls and JV boys' soccer teams as much as I enjoyed playing the sport.
